News and Events

Acknowledging that the human soul can only be healed from outside itself, by being loved and held, the prayers, hymns and anthems of Advent call out to God to come and save us from ourselves and our propensity to injure the world and each other.

During the service you will hear this longing to be made complete in what are known as the 'O Antiphons'. These are ancient poetic invocations to God. They cry out to our Creator, praying that we might finally be seen for who we really are, full of shadow and light.

This recognition is known as 'judgement' and it is, ultimately, a liberating theme of the Advent season. At the same time, we ask that we be embraced with a mercy that will lead us into a fresh and hopeful future. Advent is a time of attentiveness and patience, watching and waiting, as we try to tune our hearts to the harmonies of heaven, alert to God's presence amongst us.

The pattern of the chapel's Advent service in its four sections will reflect faith's growing anticipation, both of the first coming of Christ and of that day when the prayer 'Thy Kingdom come' is finally and fully answered.

We will be especially pleased to be welcoming members of the Royal Victorian Order to read the lessons.
