News and Events

In January we keep both the Feast of the Epiphany and Feast of Candlemas, moments of manifestation and purification. The Shortest Day is behind us and even if Spring lays some way off, snowdrops are emerging. That said, the mild weather through November brought unseasonal birdsong and early flora!

The journeys from Advent to Christmas, from Epiphany to Candlemas are joyous; and in these challenging times offer us hooks beyond ourselves on which to hang the hopes and fears of all the years, met as they are in the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

As we embrace this New Year, we will hear, if we but listen, the Christmas angels their great glad tidings tell: O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel.

As ever,

Thomas
